

Driving/Transportation Websites

Title and location	Topic
National Center on Senior Transportation www.seniortransportation.net	The National Center on Senior Transportation provides information, materials, and training to increase transportation options for older adults and enhance their ability to live more independently within their communities.
American Medical Association – Getting By Without Driving (from Patient and Caregiver Educational Materials) http://www.cmdg.org/MDC_tools/older-drivers-appendixb.pdf	Safety information and driving alternatives for older Americans. Ideas and alternatives for driving are included, along with information on home delivery services and agencies offering assistance to older American who do not drive.
The National Volunteer Transportation Center http://web1.ctaa.org/webmodules/webarticles/anmviewer.asp?a=3767&z=132	Listings by state of volunteer transportation services in your area.
Alzheimer’s Association http://www.cmdg.org/MDC_tools/older-drivers-appendixb.pdf	Dementia & Driving Resource Center. Tips, video vignettes, and resources for family members and caregivers who must discuss a change in driving access to their loved one with dementia or Alzheimer’s disease.
The Hartford Center for Mature Market Excellence https://www.thehartford.com/sites/the_hartford/files/cmme-crossroads.pdf	At The Crossroads: Family Conversations About Alzheimer’s Disease, Dementia & Driving. This is a joint publication from MIT AgeLab and The Hartford Center for Mature Market Excellence.