

Scam and Fraud Prevention Websites

Title and location	Topic
The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) https://www.fbi.gov/scams-safety/fraud/seniors	Valuable information and tips on how to protect you and your family from fraud.
Better Business Bureau https://www.bbb.org	Help you in finding your local Better Business Bureau office, which will assist you in finding and recommending businesses, brands, and charities you can trust.
Caregiver Stress Resource Page http://www.caregiverstress.com/elder-financial/helping-seniors-finances/warning-signs-fraud-video/	Short videos on how to spot the warning signs of fraud.
Stop Fraud: Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force http://www.stopfraud.gov/protect-yourself.html	Information on how to report suspected fraud and additional tips on how to avoid scams. Links to other resourceful websites are also provided on this page.
Alzheimer's Association http://alz.org/texas/in_my_community_57806.asp	Information specific to "Check Scamming" and how to prevent and recognize this type of fraud.